Look here for some online vocabulary learning cards:
ku7rn4

a) Choose one room. Think of four things you can usually find in this room. Make a vocabulary learning card for each of the things: Write the English word on the front of the card and the German meaning on the back.

b) Find a partner with a different room. Mix your cards.

Partner A:

Pick a card and say the German word.

Partner B:

Say the word in English.

Media skills

Vokabellernkarten gibt es auch als App passend zu deinem Buch. Damit kannst du Zuhause oder unterwegs üben. Außerdem sind die neuen Wörter vertont. So lernst du nicht nur die richtige Schreibweise, sondern auch die Aussprache. Probiere beide Varianten einmal aus. Tausche dich mit einem Partner dazu aus.

Irina (sister)

Jamie (brother)

Jan (cousin)

Sherlock

Jack Elliot (dad)

Anna Elliot (mum)

Damian and Mila Zajac
(uncle and aunt)

Hi! I'm Luke Elliot. I'm from Greenwich. I live with my parents, my sister and my little brother. My father is English, but my mother is from Poland. The Zajacs (her family) live in Cracow. My cousin Jan is an only child, like my dad. Jan is twelve – and cool! I'm eleven.

My parents are great, and my sister is OK too. Her name is Irina and she's thirteen. It isn't always easy with my brother Jamie. He's eight. But it's fun at home with our crazy dog Sherlock!
